RSC MARKET

Services agreement for recruiting companies that advertise on RSC

The Recruiter brings companies to advertise on RSC. Of each monthly fee that company pays, 40% stays with the Recruiter and 60% stays with RSC.

THE RECRUITER	RSC
40% of each monthly fee the company pays	60% of that same monthly fee

Example. If a company pays R$ 299 per month for its listing plan, the Recruiter receives R$ 119.60 and RSC keeps R$ 179.40. The same rule applies whatever the paid plan amount is.

RSC and the Recruiter are together the Parties.

Clause 1. Purpose

The Recruiter will provide RSC with commercial recruitment services: identify, contact, and introduce companies (real-estate firms, dealerships, builders, service providers, and other advertisers) so that they register and take a paid listing plan on RSC Market.

RSC is a publishing and contact marketplace. It does not close the sale between the advertiser and the buyer, does not hold that money, and does not replace the advertising company. This agreement covers only company recruitment and the Recruiter’s commission.

Clause 2. Nature of the relationship

The Recruiter acts as an independent contractor. This agreement does not create employment, a partnership, a general agency, or exclusivity, unless the Parties agree otherwise in writing. The Recruiter sets their own schedule, pays their own recruitment expenses, and has no authority to bind RSC, grant discounts, promise terms other than the current plans, or collect money from companies.

Clause 3. What counts as a recruited company

A Recruited Company is one that meets all three of the following:

1. The Recruiter introduced it to RSC before it was a paying customer.

2. The company registers and identifies the Recruiter (code, link, or written record accepted by RSC).

3. RSC did not already have an active commercial relationship with that company, or an open negotiation attributed to another channel.

If two people claim the same company, the written record on the registration accepted by RSC prevails. Companies that arrive on their own, companies that were already customers, and companies recruited by RSC’s own team do not earn a commission for the Recruiter.

Clause 4. Commission: 40% of the monthly fee

4.1. For each Recruited Company, the Recruiter receives forty percent (40%) of the monthly listing-plan fee that company pays to RSC.

4.2. The remaining sixty percent (60%) of that same monthly fee belongs to RSC. The Recruiter does not share in any other platform revenue.

4.3. The commission arises each month, and only on the fee RSC has actually collected. If the company does not pay in a given month, there is no commission for that month. If it changes plan, receives a discount, a refund, or a chargeback, the base is the amount actually collected and not reversed. The free plan earns no commission.

4.4. The right to 40% continues for every month the Recruited Company keeps paying its plan, even after this agreement has ended. It ends if the company stops paying, if RSC terminates for the Recruiter’s material breach, or if the company attribution is shown to be false.

4.5. The 40% is calculated on the plan fee collected from the company. RSC’s operating costs are not deducted. Each Party pays its own taxes. A tax invoiced separately from the plan fee is not part of the base.

4.6. The Recruiter does not collect from companies. The company pays RSC. RSC then pays the 40% to the Recruiter.

Clause 5. Settlement and payment

RSC pays the commission within fifteen (15) days after the end of each calendar month, by transfer to the account stated in this agreement. Each payment includes a statement showing: company, plan, fee collected, and the corresponding 40%. The Recruiter may request the statement for a month within ninety (90) days after payment. After that period, the settlement is deemed accepted, except for a clear error.

Clause 6. Recruiter’s duties

- Present RSC accurately, using the plans, prices, and limits published by RSC.
- Do not promise featured placement, approval times, or terms that RSC has not authorized in writing.
- Do not collect money from companies or give them a bank account other than RSC’s.
- Use company contact details only for this recruitment and in line with applicable data-protection law.
- Tell RSC, when asked, the status of the companies being introduced.

Clause 7. RSC’s duties

- Decide, at its own discretion, whether to approve each company’s registration.
- Give the Recruiter the current plan information and a way to identify their sign-ups (code or link).
- Collect the fee from the Recruited Company and pay the 40% within the period in Clause 5.
- Keep the attribution record for each Recruited Company for as long as that company remains registered.

Clause 8. Term and termination

This agreement lasts twelve (12) months from signature and renews for equal periods unless either Party gives thirty (30) days’ notice. Either Party may end it without cause on thirty (30) days’ notice. RSC may end it immediately if the Recruiter collects from a company, falsifies attribution, uses the brand outside what is allowed, or materially breaches Clause 6. Termination does not cancel commissions already earned or, except for termination for material breach, the future 40% on Recruited Companies that keep paying.

Clause 9. Brand and confidentiality

RSC allows the Recruiter to use RSC’s name and sales materials only to recruit companies, while this agreement is in force and in line with RSC’s instructions. That permission ends with the agreement. Non-public terms, customer lists, and settlements stay confidential during the agreement and for two (2) years after it ends.

Clause 10. Law and signature

This agreement is governed by the laws of Brazil. The Parties submit disputes to the courts of RSC’s domicile, unless a mandatory rule says otherwise. Anything not covered is resolved in good faith. Any change to the 40% commission requires a written agreement signed by both Parties. An electronic signature has the same effect as a handwritten one.

The Parties have read this agreement and sign it in two originals of the same content.
